

81ST PLENARY MEETING

MUMBAI, INDIA

🌐 2-5 December 2023

Cotton Value Chain: “Local Innovations for Global Prosperity”

Dr Rossitza Krueger

Dr Rossitza Krueger is the Head of the Project in cotton in India at Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ) GmbH since November 2019 — later also on Tea and Spices — and is based in Mumbai. The project is part of the global programme ‘Sustainability and Value Added in Agricultural Supply Chains’, commissioned by BMZ German Federal Ministry for Economic Cooperation and Development. Previously, she worked at Fairtrade International the development and implementation of the Fairtrade Textile Standard and the supporting capacity programme for better working conditions in producing countries. Dr Krueger has a background in textile engineering and quality management. She has worked in various textile functions in Bulgaria and Germany over the past 18 years with her main focus on environmental and social compliance, as well as production, value management, quality and standardisation; also as expert consultant for different retailers and consumer organisations. She has managed projects in Germany, India, South Africa, Turkey, Bangladesh, Philippines, Macedonia, Switzerland, Ethiopia, and China, among others.